

To Whom It May Concern:

I highly recommend Curt Cloninger to perform for your event. He was a collaborative partner for our large leadership conference on March 22, 2011. He wrote a powerful, moving, funny, inspiring theatrical piece that completely captivated our 1200 leaders in attendance. It was an original one-man show that highlighted five characters who represented our workforce and our customer base. When we read the evaluations that were turned in, we saw something we have never seen before, in that no one at our conference had any negative comments on Curt's portion of the agenda. His performance was only 30 minutes long in an all-day event, yet 130 people said that Curt was the very best part of the day. He held the audience in the palm of his hand, and they laughed, cried, and were moved greatly by his influence. The comments that people made reflected how powerfully moved they were by his performance. Here are just a few:

"Curt Cloninger was excellent! Words can't describe the feelings of compassion his message brings! So uplifting!"

"Curt Cloninger was FANTASTIC!! He really portrayed our culture. I was so moved by his stories."

"Curt Cloninger's presentation was excellent! I thoroughly enjoyed it! It was funny, touching, and meaningful. Bravo!"

"Curt Cloninger – simply marvelous portrayal of real people."

"Curt was extremely refreshing and inspirational!"

"Curt was fabulous. I laughed and I cried. Wonderful presentation that really exemplifies what we do and why we do it."

As the program manager for this event, I found Curt to be completely cooperative, responsive, and easy to work with. He was 100% professional in all of our interactions. I gave him an impossible task, which he fulfilled perfectly:

- Write and perform something that would help people re-identify with what brought them to our organization in the first place
- Exemplify the very best examples of service that we deliver
- Make us laugh
- Make us cry
- Make us think hard about why we do what we do
- Inspire us to leave here refreshed and motivated to do great work

He delivered great value to our leadership population, and I would be delighted to share my positive insights with anyone who is considering partnering with Curt for their event. He will exceed your expectations.
